Conversations and Color Revolutions: Two New Exhibitions in NYC

Submitted by Anonymous on Sun, 06/07/2015 - 17:49

Country: USACity: New York

Helga Zumstein. Berlin Wall 1. Acrylic on Canvas. 39.5"x39.5"

This July, Agora Gallery presents two collective exhibitions to re-imagine and reinvigorate the world. Répartie in Art presents the work of international artists as they tackle the concept of "space" and those who occupy it. From landscapes to fragments of a scene, from human or animal subjects to something more abstract, the works open a dialog between artist and audience on a variety of levels. Rhapsody in Color is an exhibition of immeasurable vibrancy, presenting expert combinations and groupings of hue to produce carefully calculated reactions in the viewer. By applying their manipulations of color to a variety of subjects, the featured artists add their thumbprint to familiar and foreign scenes to establish worlds of their own.

The exhibitions open on July 7th and will run until July 28th, 2015. The opening reception will take place Thursday, July 9th, from 6-8 PM. The exhibitions and opening reception are open to the public.
